

I got fired from my job.

A stranger came up to me and wants me to go with them.

I left my purse or wallet at home.

I put $20.00 in my wallet this morning and now it is gone.

My new CD player is missing from my locker.

My swimming class was canceled today.

I got a phone call that my mom is in the hospital and I have to come home right away.

I want to buy the new Nora Jones CD today and I don't have enough money. I really really want it.

I hate green beans and my staff tell me I have to eat what is on my plate.

A classmate kicked me and my leg hurts.
